

June 30, 2003

Dear School Psychology Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in our school psychology training program. In order to help us get to know you, please answer the following three questions. Your answers to each of these questions should be no longer than 2 pages. Please note that these questions replace the personal essay.

1. For Ph.D. applicants: Tell us about your research experiences and your interests. How do your interests match up with program faculty research interests?

For Ed.S. applicants: Describe your professional interests and how your interests match up with our school psychology training program.

2. Tell us about your applied experiences and how these experiences relate to the field of School Psychology.

3. Describe your experiences in working with individuals and/or groups from diverse backgrounds.

Best regards,

George J. DuPaul, Ph.D.
Professor and Coordinator
School Psychology Program