Biographical Sketch

Philip Isaac Berman and Muriel Mallin Berman, husband and wife – the “amazing Bermans” as they were often called – worked together as a team throughout the fifty-five years of their marriage, in raising their family, managing their businesses, making frequent trips abroad, collecting art, and planning philanthropy. This biographical sketch is therefore an account, not of one person alone, but of two together, who devoted a great deal of their astonishing energy and considerable fortune to philanthropy and public service, in their home city of Allentown, their home state of Pennsylvania, and around the world, especially in Israel.

Philip Berman was born on June 28, 1915, in Pennsburg, Pennsylvania, son of Joseph and Dora (Feingold) Berman. In 1932 he enrolled at Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pennsylvania, but in 1933 returned home to join the family trucking business, from which he built his fortune. On September 23, 1942, he married Muriel Mallin. In the same week, however, he also joined the U.S. Marine Corps, with which he served in the South Pacific during World War II.

Muriel Mallin Berman was born on June 21 1914, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, daughter of Solomon and Dora (Cooperman) Mallin. From The Pennsylvania State College of Optometry in Philadelphia she earned her doctorate in 1938 and maintained her license in optometry until 1984. In 1945 Philip Berman was relieved of active duty with the Marine Corps. In the same year their daughter Nancy Mallin Berman was born. In 1947 the family moved to Allentown. Their daughter Nina was born in 1948, and their son Steven in 1951. The family joined Congregation Keneseth Israel, in which they were active for many years, with Philip Berman serving at times as a member of the Board and as President.

On November 8, 1948, the Bermans made their first art purchase, buying two paintings by Anthony Thieme from a New York City gallery. Their first large-scale purchase came in November 1956, when they bought from the family of artist Walter Baum some three hundred paintings by Albert Jean Adolphe. This collection was the basis for a retrospective exhibition of work by Adolphe at the Allentown Art Museum in 1958 and for another in 1959 at the Reading Public Museum and Art Gallery. So began a pattern of collecting and showing art, sometimes through lending the art for exhibition, sometimes by donating it. Among the collections assembled by the Bermans were those of pre-World War II American art, of twentieth century European and American sculpture, of African art, of Eastern European art, of South American art, of Japanese prints, and of works by Israeli artists.

The Bermans' love of travel created opportunities for collecting. From December 12, 1957, to February 12, 1958, for example, they made a tour of Africa, collecting art. This was the first of many such trips to many parts of the world, trips recorded by Philip Berman in the travelogues which he came to call Odysseys (Series I.B). Travel made possible not only the collecting but also friendships with artists whose work the Bermans admired, including Henry Moore, Lynn Chadwick, Alexander Calder, and Francoise Gilot, among many others.

The first outright gift of art for public display may have been the gift of a painting, "Drifting Fog" by George M. Harding, to Lehigh University in 1959. Major gifts of art followed to Ursinus College and Lehigh University as well as to several other colleges and universities in Pennsylvania and to the Philadelphia Museum of Art, where Philip Berman became Chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1989. At Ursinus College, to house their gifts of art, the Bermans established in 1984 the Philip and Muriel Berman Museum of Art.

Art indeed became a strong passion for the Bermans. Equally strong was their energetic support of Jewish causes. Sometimes the passions converged, as when the Bermans gave to the city of Jerusalem Alexander Calder's Jerusalem Stabile in 1977 (the last monumental public sculpture Calder created in his lifetime), or Alexander Liberman's Faith in 1987. But long before the Bermans began collecting art, they were supporters of Jewish causes. In particular, Muriel Berman was active in Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, at least since 1950, and served as president of the Eastern Pennsylvania Region of Hadassah 1959-1962. Since the principal mission of Hadassah was medical relief, the Bermans provided major gifts to establish the Hadassah Nurses' Residence at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (1971) and the National Medical Library Building for the Hebrew University-Hadassah Medical School (1973), among other projects in Israel, including establishment of the masters program in clinical nursing at the Medical School-Nursing School. The Bermans worked also to encourage better Israeli-Arab relations and better Jewish-Catholic relations. One aspect of the latter effort was their presenting to Pope John Paul II on December 19, 1984, a portrait bust of him which they had commissioned from the Roman sculptor Celestino Giampaoli.

Both Philip and Muriel Berman were for many years active members of the Jewish Publication Society, founded in 1888 in Philadelphia to provide high quality books of Jewish interest for the English-speaking world. From 1981 to 1984 Muriel Berman served as the Society's first woman president. During the same period, the Bermans developed plans for a Jewish Studies Center at Lehigh University and formally established the Center in 1984. Renamed in 1989 the Philip and Muriel Berman Center for Jewish Studies, the Center became, under the direction of Laurence I. Silberstein, an energizing catalyst throughout the Lehigh Valley for the understanding of Jewish history, religion, and culture. In 1993-1994 the Bermans established contacts with the Gregorian University in Rome and arranged for exchanges of scholars and students between the Gregorian and the Berman Center at Lehigh University.

How the Bermans could find time for other interests may already be hard to see, yet their other interests were numerous. Some were business pursuits, such as the Fleetways trucking business (Series II.A) which Philip Berman managed from 1965 to 1990, and Hess's department store (Series II.B) which the Bermans bought in 1968. Hess's was an old Allentown institution and thrived mightily under the Bermans, expanding from a single downtown store to a chain of seventeen stores in two states by the time the Bermans sold it in 1979. In 1975 Muriel Berman opened Hess's Fine Arts Gallery, where she exhibited and sold the work of first rate artists.

But much of the Bermans' energy was devoted to civic affairs. Philip Berman served as chair of the Allentown Redevelopment Authority, beginning in 1960. In 1964 he was elected a trustee of Cedar Crest College. In 1965 the Bermans established with Nancy Kefauver an arrangement by which they would lend art works to the Art in the Embassies program, for display in U.S. embassies around the world. In 1966 Muriel Berman was elected a founding trustee of Lehigh Community College and later served as chair of the board. Also in 1966, Muriel Berman represented the World Jewish Congress at a UNICEF Board meeting in Ethiopia. In 1967 Philip Berman was a member of the U.S. delegation to the UN Economic and Social Council, 43rd session, in Geneva. In 1968 Philip Berman was appointed Chair of the Pennsylvania Public Television Network, a post he held until 1995. In 1971, Muriel Berman was appointed to the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts. But let these examples suffice to suggest how extraordinarily long a comprehensive list would be. Small wonder, then, that the Bermans received many awards and honors (Series III.A). Already in 1968, for example, Philip Berman received an award as a National Outstanding Civic Leader of America. In 1982 the Bermans received the Hazlett Memorial Award for Excellence in the Arts. In 1993 they received the Sheepskin Award of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities. Furthermore, because of their tireless philanthropy to educational institutions, the Bermans received several honorary degrees, notably from Ursinus College (Philip Berman in 1967, Muriel Berman in 1987), Lehigh University (Philip Berman in 1969, Muriel Berman in 1991), and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (Philip Berman in 1979, Muriel Berman in 1982).

Active in so many enterprises, and generous to so many individuals and institutions, the Bermans made many good friends, among artists, educators, politicians, clergy, librarians, doctors, and many others. Among those not already mentioned were Jonas Salk, Teddy Kollek (mayor of Jerusalem), Senator Henry Jackson, Tenzing Norgay (Sherpa guide on Mount Everest), James Michener, Anne d'Harnoncourt (Director of the Philadelphia Museum of Art). Many also were the notable people whom the Bermans met, including Lady Bird Johnson, Hubert Humphrey, Jimmy Carter, King Hussein of Jordan, David Ben-Gurion of Israel, Anwar Sadat of Egypt, Henry Kissinger, Barbara Walters, Gina Lollobrigida, Sophia Loren, Armand Hammer, Ronald Reagan. The photographic prints in Series VI.A record some of the Bermans' meetings with such notable people, as do the files of correspondence in Series I.D.

The loss therefore was great to many when Philip Berman died on November 26, 1997, and when Muriel Berman died on April 13, 2004. Nevertheless, their generous gifts will keep their memory alive for many years to come.

Scope and Content Note

The Philip I. and Muriel M. Berman Papers: Collection I contains records ranging in date from 1915 to 1999, the earliest dated item being apparently a letter from the painter Walter Elmer Schofield (Box 76 Folder 3). Most of the records belong to the period 1960-1997. Comprising a variety of formats, such as handwritten and typed correspondence, photographic prints, slide transparencies, books, posters, and miscellaneous printed ephemera, the Collection occupies some 132 linear feet. The Collection is organized into nine series, of which all but one are further subdivided into a total of 37 subseries. For each subseries, a detailed introduction is provided in this guide.

Format has determined the contents of some of the series, as for instance Series VI contains some 4,313 photographic prints, some 4,388 slide transparencies, and an assortment of motion picture films, video cassettes, and audio tapes. Series VII contains newspaper clippings and other miscellaneous printed items; Series VIII contains books, Series IX various oversize items. Other series are determined largely by subject, as for instance Series II contains the business records of Fleetways and of Hess's, Series III includes several files on areas of civic involvement, Series IV focuses on philanthropy, and Series V contains family memorabilia. Series I contains correspondence and manuscripts, subdivided by subject.

Pervading all the files, however, are two major themes: the passion for art, and the tireless support for Jewish causes, especially those sponsored by Hadassah. Thus in Series I, by far the largest component is Subseries F, the Art Correspondence, filling nearly 60 boxes. A staggering range of artists is represented here, and not only by letters but also by photographs, newspaper and magazine articles, catalogs of shows, invitations, and so on. Even so, this file is only a fraction of the material relating to art found throughout the Collection. Similarly there is in Series IV a subseries on Special Projects in Israel, another on the Jewish Studies Center, and yet another on the American Jewish Committee, yet records of support for Jewish causes are to be found throughout the entire Collection.

Highlights of the Collection are far too numerous to list here or even to suggest through a representative sample, but mention might be made of such items as the photographs of the Bermans presenting to Pope John Paul II the portrait bust by Celestino Giampaoli, the correspondence with Francoise Gilot, the letters from Sir Edmund Hilary, the photograph of Golda Meir inscribed to Philip Berman, the framed reproduction of Paul Gauguin's painting of which the original once hung in the Bermans' living room.

For researchers seeking the most basic facts, however, beyond this guide a good starting point may be Folder 15 of Box 195 containing the obituaries of Philip Berman.

Note on Provenance and Access

Following the death of Philip Berman in November 1997, Muriel Berman decided to offer his papers to Lehigh University. The Department of Special Collections in Linderman Library arranged for the archival processing. The papers themselves came to Lehigh in several installments during 1999, some from the Bermans' office at 1150 South Cedar Crest Boulevard in Allentown, and some from their house at 2000 Nottingham Road, Allentown. Processing was largely completed by the spring of 2000. After Muriel Berman's death in April 2004, Nancy Berman formalized the transfer of the papers to Lehigh University by deed of gift signed December 26, 2005.

Lehigh University maintains the collection now known as The Philip I. and Muriel M. Berman Papers:

Collection I primarily for the purpose of making it available for scholarly research. Restrictions on access are therefore kept to a minimum. Nevertheless access to some parts of the collection will be restricted until January 1, 2030, for reasons of privacy. The parts so restricted are, as of May 15, 2006:

Series I.A; Series I.D; Series III; Series IV.A-F; Series IV.H; Series V; Series IX
As work continues on the Collection, the scope of the restrictions will be narrowed, and this list will be revised. Researchers seeking access to restricted parts of the Collection should submit a request for special permission to the Department of Special Collections.

Some documents have been removed for safekeeping from their locations as shown in this finding aid and have been replaced with photocopies, which are marked to show that they are replacements. Researchers requiring to see the original of such a photocopy should ask Special Collections staff for assistance.

Unrestricted parts of the Collection are accessible subject to the general policies of Special Collections; photocopying and publishing from the collection are permitted subject to the policies of the repository and the laws of copyright.

Acknowledgements

The archival arrangement of The Philip I. and Muriel M. Berman Papers: Collection I, and the production of this finding aid, owe much to the efforts and generosity of several people. Muriel Berman and Nancy Berman made the decisions which led to their transferring this valuable Collection to Lehigh University. Furthermore they supported the work of processing through gifts of funds and by supplying essential information. In particular, Muriel Berman undertook to provide, from memory, identification of several hundred photographs, thereby greatly increasing their value to researchers.

Janet Heffner, longtime secretary and administrative assistant to both Philip and Muriel Berman, generously shared her wealth of knowledge and experience, whenever there were questions. And like Muriel Berman, she too helped identify hundreds of photographs.

Philip Metzger, Curator of Special Collections at Lehigh University, superintended the project from the start, beginning with negotiation of the transfer and the hiring of a project archivist (the undersigned) and continuing with welcome encouragement and logistical problem-solving.

Ilhan Citak, Archives and Special Collections Librarian, has generously supplied technical expertise and logistical support, especially since Philip Metzger's retirement at the end of 2005, as has also Christine Roysdon, Director, Library Collections and Systems.

Marie Boltz, Special Collections Assistant until her retirement in 2000, provided much practical help and advice drawn from her experience in cataloging several manuscript collections. Joe Cackowski, undergraduate student assistant, patiently and thoroughly sorted and arranged the more than four thousand slides in the Collection. Yelena Shirakova did much of the careful chronological arrangement of files, and last but not least, with her clear civil engineer's lettering, provided legible labeling for the file folders and boxes.

To all these people I gratefully offer this token of appreciation, knowing that not only did they make my work easier and more enjoyable but also they will have the gratitude of future researchers who come to Lehigh University to use this fine Collection in years to come.

SERIES I.A Letters by Philip I. Berman

Philip Berman was a prolific writer of letters. He did not type, but dictated. Beginning in 1987, when his secretary, Janet Heffner, started using a computer for correspondence, many letters were saved on disks, and not on paper. In 1999, when Lehigh University began the project of arranging the collection, Mrs. Heffner took on the arduous task of printing out the various files of correspondence on acid-free paper, while she still had access to computers old enough to do the job. The result is a record of great value to the researcher.

The letters have been kept in the subject categories in which they were stored, and in general the categories have been kept in the order in which they were received at Lehigh University. Within each category the order in which the letters were printed has been retained; this order is usually, but not always, chronological. The titles of the categories are mostly taken from the labels provided by Mrs. Heffner.

Besides the texts of letters, the printouts occasionally include texts of speeches, and lists of artwork. The printouts occupy all the folders from Box 1, folder 1 through Box 4, folder 7. Box 4 folder 8 contains a few copies of faxes from October of 1997; these were not printed out from disks, but were received separately.

Voluminous though this correspondence is, the researcher should be warned that it is only the tip of the iceberg. Throughout the rest of the Berman Collection, interfiled with related papers, are countless other letters by Philip Berman and Muriel Berman, preserved as carbon copies or photocopies or faxed originals. Subseries A of Series 1 is therefore no more than a valuable sample of the Bermans' vast output of letters relating to the great variety of their projects and interests.

SERIES I.B Odysseys

The frequent and far-flung travels of Philip and Muriel Berman occasioned numerous letters home, such as the sequence filed in Series V.A under the years 1957-1958 (Box 185, Folder 18), when the Bermans traveled in Africa. In 1963-1964, Philip Berman began the practice of duplicating such letters for circulation to friends, and in 1966 his letter of May 6 was first titled an "Odyssey" -- the term he and many others subsequently used for all his narrative reports of travels. In Series I.B the Odysseys (dating from 1963 through 1996) are filed in chronological order; all are photocopies of typescripts or computer printouts except for the original typescript under the date July 6, 1969, and the draft in Philip Berman's hand of the August 4, 1989 Odyssey. There are some 82 separate Odysseys in this file, totaling approximately 1,000 leaves, many with text on both sides. In the following list, the date given for each Odyssey is usually the date recorded at or near the beginning of the text. When an Odyssey has a distinctive title, the title is entered after the date. A note of the places described is given in parentheses, with occasional supplementary descriptive notes.

SERIES I.C Manuscripts

In this subseries are included texts for talks by Philip Berman and by Muriel Berman on art, art collecting, and business, together with assorted notes by them on other topics and a draft of their 1989 introduction to Sculpture in the Park (see Series VII.A Box 200 Folder 3). Appreciations both typed and printed of their work are included among the Manuscripts about Philip Berman; in this group is an offprint from the Congressional Record publishing the speech delivered by Fred Rooney on April 4, 1968. Most of the Manuscripts by Others are on Jewish topics; among the authors are Alan H. Luxenberg, Amos Elon, Joseph Dan, Irving Bernstein, Michael A. Signer, Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, and Conor Cruise O'Brien.

SERIES I.D General Correspondence

In the office of Philip and Muriel Berman, the General Correspondence file was the principal means of organizing a variety of materials which did not belong in specialized files such as the Art Correspondence or the Awards file. The primary arrangement was and is alphabetical. Under each alphabetical heading, the arrangement has been made, in so far as possible, strictly chronological. Contents range in date from 1950 through 1999 and include not only letters and memos (both outgoing and incoming) but also printed invitations, announcements, and programs; newspaper and magazine articles; newsletters and pamphlets; certificates, resumes, and wills; receipts, invoices, and financial statements; organizational reports and address lists; and records of gifts by the Bermans.

Individuals and organizations of many kinds are represented here, especially those sharing the Bermans' concern for education, politics, and Jewish affairs. For education, there are for example files under Allentown College, Cedar Crest College, Harvard University, Lafayette College, Lehigh University, Moravian College, Muhlenberg College, and the University of Pennsylvania (most Ursinus College materials are filed in Series IV.A). In politics, there are files under, for example, Birch Bayh, George Bush, Jimmy Carter, Bill Clinton, Democratic Party Platform Committee, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Gerald Ford, Hubert Humphrey, Henry M. Jackson, Walter Mondale, Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Political, Republican National Committee, Fred B. Rooney, Sargent Shriver, Richard Thornburgh, VIP Correspondence, Washington Correspondence, and White House. For Jewish affairs, there are, for example, files under America-Israel Cultural Foundation, American Friends of the Hebrew University, American Jewish Committee, Alice and Roy Eckardt, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel, Teddy Kollek, State of Israel Bonds, Tiberias, and World Zionist Congress.

At the same time, a wide range of other correspondence is included, under such headings as Allentown Symphony Association, Boy Scouts, Hamilton Hilton, Marine Corps, Metropolitan Opera, Tenzing Norgay, Pope (i.e. John Paul II), Trexler Trust, WLVT-TV. And within many files there are letters by or photographs of persons whose names do not appear in the title of the file. Thus for example a letter of Harry Truman (June 20, 1966) is in the White House file, and a letter from Bennett Cerf (July 28, 1965) is found in the file titled Bangkok Trip. A selection of such names has been recorded in parentheses following the title of each such file.

SERIES I.E Jewish-Christian Relations

The Bermans' important contributions to the improvement of Jewish-Christian relations are reflected nearly everywhere in the Collection, from the files of newspaper clippings in Series VII to the record of their visits with Pope John Paul II in Series IV.G. Aspects of the same involvement are documented here in Series I.E, through the correspondence with James H. Forest, of the International Fellowship of Reconciliation, and with William Klassen, of the Ecumenical Institute for Theological Research, Tantur, Jerusalem, Israel. Some printed information on both organizations is also included in this file.

SERIES I.F Art Correspondence

The Art Correspondence is the largest subseries in the Berman Collection and contains a great variety of materials ranging in date from 1915 through 1999. Letters exchanged between the Bermans and several hundred artists may be said to form the core of this subseries. The letters are supplemented by various kinds of documentation relating to the artists and their work: newspaper and magazine articles, photographs, catalogs of shows, printed brochures, announcements, invitations, lists, receipts, even sketches and technical drawings for large scale sculpture. Among the artists represented by especially important materials are Albert Jean Adolphe, Alexander Calder, Françoise Gilot, Israel Hadany, Menashe Kadishman, Henry Moore, Ephraim Peleg, Helen Rundell, Herbert Seiler, Yehiel Shemi, Paul Sisko, Melville Stark, Thomas Sternal, Igaël Tumarkin, Glenn Zwegardt. Many other artists are represented by files of which their names are the titles, as for example Motke Blum, Paul Gauguin, J. Seward Johnson, Alexander Liberman, Joan Miro, Igor Mitoraj, Pablo Picasso, George Segal, Ernest Shaw, Mary Ann Unger. Still others have no separate files under their names, but are included in the "Miscellaneous" files under the letter with which the name begins, as for example Childe Hassam under "A" Miscellaneous, or Louise Nevelson under "N" Miscellaneous. These files, as well as all the others in the subseries, have been kept in the alphabetical order in which they were received; internally each file has been arranged, to the extent possible, in strict chronological order.

Besides the files under the artists' names, there are also files on dealers, collectors, museums, and any other persons and organizations in whose art activities the Bermans took an interest. Some files concern institutions or organizations to which the Bermans gave or lent art works, such as The Art in Embassies program, the Allentown Library, Cedar Crest College, Dieruff High School, the Israel Museum, Lafayette College, Lehigh University, Moravian College, Notre Dame University, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Reading Museum, the University of Pennsylvania, Ursinus College. Some files record important commissions, such as the bust of Pope John Paul II, documented under "Pope" in Box 70 and also under the name of the sculptor Celestino Giampaoli in Box 47. Some files document whole collections of art assembled by the Bermans and made available for exhibition, such as the files on Israeli Art, Japanese Art, and Yugoslavian Art.

The Art Correspondence is rich in information of all kinds on individual artists and on the art world generally in the second half of the twentieth century. It also impressively documents the Bermans' energetic championing of the arts over a period of more than fifty years. Closely related files will be found in Series I.G (Wenz), Series III.C (Philadelphia Museum of Art), Series IV.A (Ursinus College), Series IV.B (Lehigh University), Series IV.H (Art Gifts), Series VI (Photographs), and Series VIII (Books).

SERIES I.G Wenz

In 1993 Philip Berman and an international group of ten sculptors organized the Lehigh Valley's first sculpture workshop, using the facilities and expertise of the Wenz Co. stone works in Allentown and of the L&M Fabrication and Machine Inc. metal fabricators in Bath. The resulting sculptures were then offered by the Bermans as gifts to various institutions; recipients include the Lehigh Valley Hospital, where the Berman Sculpture Park was dedicated in 1994; several of the Pennsylvania State University campuses; the State Museum of Pennsylvania in Harrisburg; Ursinus College; Lehigh University; and the sculpture park Grounds for Sculpture in Hamilton, New Jersey.

Series I.G contains correspondence with individual artists, sketches and photographs of their work, and biographical information about them. Documentation of the evolution of the workshop is supplied by various letters, financial records, and printed articles by Myra Yellin Goldfarb and others. Some information on an annual workshop in New York City, the Triangle Artists' Workshop, is found in Box 90 Folder 13 as well as in Box 91 Folder 24. The printed catalog for an important show at Grounds for Sculpture in 1995 is in Box 91 Folder 23. Further documentation of the various gifts of sculpture will be found in Series IV.H (Art Gifts).

SERIES I.H Get Well Cards and Condolences

Philip Berman's illness in the spring of 1997 occasioned a large number of get well cards and letters. His death on November 26, 1997, brought an outpouring of memorial gifts and condolence cards and letters from friends and admirers in many walks of life and in many parts of the world. This important correspondence, including copies of a few of the acknowledgements from Muriel Berman and Janet Heffner, has been arranged, to the extent practicable, in chronological order as a separate subseries, having been received as a distinct file. Letters from many of the Bermans' close friends and associates will be found here. Since a full indexing of these friends is not possible, the names of a few have been added to the folder listings as a minimal guide to the researcher.

SERIES II.A Fleetways

Fleetways, Inc., was incorporated as a Pennsylvania corporation on February 18, 1965, and dissolved on May 3, 1990. Its directors were Philip I. Berman and Muriel M. Berman. It acquired properties suitable primarily for trucking terminals in and near Allentown, Bethlehem, Philadelphia, and York (all in Pennsylvania), as well as Albany, New York and Cinnaminson, New Jersey. Terminals on these properties were then rented or leased to trucking companies. Chief among these properties was the Berman Industrial Park, acquired in 1965 as undeveloped farmland immediately northwest of the intersection of U.S. Route 22 and Pa. Route 512. Divided into eight lots, this property was occupied by a variety of businesses. The lots still owned by Philip Berman in 1992 were sold by him to Gary J. Assetto. Philip Berman held the mortgage, and in 1994 transferred it as a gift to Lehigh University, for the support of the Berman Center for Jewish Studies. Similarly he gave to Ursinus College the mortgage on the Cinnaminson property in July 1993.

The Fleetways files (Series II.A), extending from 1964 to 1997, include numerous blueprint plans of sites and buildings, a few photographs of sites and buildings, deeds, mortgages, lease agreements, insurance policies, court documents, appraisals, proposals, invoices, financial reports, and correspondence. These files contain also some records of smaller but related enterprises of Philip Berman, such as Maxwell Associates, B.K.P. Associates, P.K.B. Associates, and Hubbard Road Associates (see files under Maxwell and B.K.P. in Box 105). The original partners in all four of these partnerships were Philip I. Berman, Jack Kushner, and Albert Pell.

Businesses represented in the Fleetways files include: All Phase Electric, Arrow Carrier Corp., Frederick Transport U.S., Groller Transportation, Hauser's Truck Service, March Development Co.,

PJAX (Pittsburgh Johnstown Altoona Express), Red Roof Inn (see Plans file for 1980 in Box 98 Folder 5), Right Way Transportation, Roadway Services, St. Johnsbury Trucking Corp., Yellow Freight System, and others. Various government agencies, law firms, contractors, and individuals are also represented throughout these files.

In general the Fleetways files have been kept as received, except that internally each file has been put in chronological order. Box 98 Folder 1 through Box 102 Folder 1 contain records of the Berman Industrial Park. Box 102 Folder 2 through Box 105 Folder 7 contain records of the other properties. Box 105 Folder 8 through Box 106 Folder 15 contain files on matters relevant to all the properties.

SERIES II.B Hess's

The department store in Allentown, Pennsylvania, known as Hess Brothers, or Hess's, was founded on February 19, 1897, by Charles and Max Hess. In March of 1968 Philip Berman bought the store from Max Hess, son of the founder, and embarked on a program of expansion, while continuing and enhancing the store's tradition of high quality merchandise, community involvement, and special events. By the time Philip Berman sold the business to Crown America, Inc., in October 1979, Hess's had grown from a single downtown store to a chain of seventeen stores in two states. For the annual flower show it had attracted guests of honor such as Barbara Eden, Patsy Mink, Angie Brooks, Barbara Walters, and Virginia Graham; on other occasions it had welcomed Hubert H. Humphrey, Rosalynn Carter, Gina Lollobrigida, and Boy Scout representatives from Egypt and Israel, among many others. In September 1975 Muriel Berman opened The Gallery, known also as Hess's Fine Arts Gallery, where she exhibited and sold the work of first rate artists, including Alexander Calder, Marc Chagall, Francoise Gilot, Obican, Pablo Picasso, Shalom of Safed. The success of the store in the 1970's attracted the attention of The New York Times, Business Week, and other national publications, as well as the Harvard Business School.

The Hess's files include correspondence, incorporating a great variety of miscellaneous documents; a collection of printed announcements of Gallery shows; a collection of publications by Hess's from the years 1968-1990, such as the annual reports and the newsletter Hess's World; many miscellaneous printed items, most of which are newspaper and magazine articles; and some 90 photographic prints, mostly black and white, of the downtown store in Allentown, the staff, the special events, and The Gallery.

Much further information on Hess's will be found included in files elsewhere in the Berman Collection, as for instance in the Art Correspondence (Series I.F) and the Art Gifts (Series IV.H). A large number of related photographs are housed in Binders 23-27 of Series VI.A (Photographic Prints).

SERIES ILC Lloyd's of London

On December 4, 1968, Philip I. Berman was officially elected an Underwriting Member of Lloyd's of London, the first American to be sponsored for membership following the decision by Lloyd's in February 1968 to admit members who were not British subjects. In 1974 Muriel Berman and their son Steven Berman were also elected members. The Lloyd's of London files, extending from 1961 to 1997, include a great deal of correspondence and related records of the Bermans' financial involvement with Lloyd's. They contain also, especially for the years 1990-1996 a vast quantity of ephemeral printed material generated during the protracted financial crisis of the firm. The researcher may wish to consult also the two books on Lloyd's included in Series VIII.C.

SERIES III.A Awards

Beginning with 1962, the Awards file records many of the awards and other honors bestowed on Philip I Berman and Muriel M. Berman in recognition of their talents, generosity, and achievements. Educational institutions figure prominently in these files, notably in the correspondence, photographs, and related documents concerning honorary degrees conferred by Ursinus College (Philip Berman 1967, Muriel Berman 1987), Lehigh University (Philip Berman 1969, Muriel Berman 1991) and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (Philip Berman 1979, Muriel Berman 1982). Active interest in education led Muriel Berman to join the Board of Trustees of Kutztown State Teachers College (1962), and of Lehigh County Community College (1966); in 1980 she was appointed to the Board of State College and University Directors, and in 1987 to the Board of Governors for the State System of Higher Education. Other awards which are well documented in these files include: Outstanding Civic Leader of America (Philip Berman 1968), Golden Plate Award (Philip Berman 1973). Hazlett Memorial Award for Excellence in the Arts (Philip Berman & Muriel Berman 1982), Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania (Muriel Berman 1982), Scopus Award of the American Friends of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (Philip Berman and Muriel Berman 1984), Henrietta Szold Award of the Jewish Publication Society (Muriel Berman 1988), and the Sheepskin Award of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities (Philip Berman & Muriel Berman 1993).

The Awards File includes records also of some, but not nearly all, of the core leadership activities which prompted the awards. Among the better documented are: a tour of South American cities on behalf of the American Jewish Committee and the World Jewish Congress (Philip Berman and Muriel Berman 1964); participation in a UNICEF Executive Board meeting in Bangkok on behalf of the World Jewish Congress (Muriel Berman 1965); participation as a U.S. delegate to a UN conference in Geneva (Philip Berman 1967); and support of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts (Philip Berman and Muriel Berman 1974, 1976, 1982). Many other activities are thoroughly documented in other files of Series III and IV, if not in the Awards File itself.

The Awards file has been kept as received in its basic chronological order. Chronological arrangement within each year has been refined, and a few stray records have been added from elsewhere in the collection.

SERIES III.B

Pennsylvania Public Television Network Commission (PPTN) and WLVT-TV

Philip I. Berman served on the Governor's Advisory Committee on Public Television (Pennsylvania) in 1967-1968. He attended President Lyndon B. Johnson's signing of the Public Television Broadcasting Act on Nov. 7, 1967, and Governor Raymond P. Shafer's signing of Act 329 establishing the Pennsylvania Public Television Network. He was appointed by Governor Shafer in 1968 to be Chairman of the PPTN Commission, and continued in this post until his retirement in 1995. On November 6, 1995 a special tribute was held for him, with welcome by Governor Tom Ridge and remarks by Fred Rogers (of Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood). Through most of these years, Philip Berman was also very active on the Board of WLVT-TV Channel 39.

The records kept by Philip Berman on his work with PPTN and WLVT constituted a single file and have been kept together; the arrangement has been made strictly chronological, except for the largest documents and photographs, which are in Boxes 201, 202 and 204.

The PPTN files contain extensive correspondence by Philip Berman and others, frequent financial statements, many news clippings and other miscellaneous printed items (including publications of the Aspen Institute). Correspondence from U.S. Congressmen, Governors, and other major public figures has been included. Approximately three quarters of this file is from the years 1993-1994 and includes much correspondence with Sheldon P. Siegel and others plus related material concerning the management crisis at WLVT.

SERIES III.C Philadelphia Museum of Art (PMA)

Friendly relations between the Bermans and the Philadelphia Museum of Art began as early as 1958, when the Bermans offered to give to the Museum some of their recently acquired Albert Jean Adolphe paintings. Correspondence and visits continued; in 1982 a gift from the Bermans enabled the Museum to acquire the wall relief Hackenheim by Frank Stella; in 1985, thanks to a major gift from the Bermans, the Museum acquired from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts a collection of some 2400 European Old Master prints and drawings; in 1988 the Bermans established the Muriel and Philip Berman Curatorship of Twentieth Century Art. In 1989, Philip Berman, already a Museum Trustee, was elected Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and led the Museum through a financially difficult period, in which also were mounted some of the Museum's most spectacular and successful shows, including the Barnes Foundation exhibition 1995 and the Cezanne exhibition in 1996. This file contains much correspondence, notably with Anne d'Harnoncourt, the Museum's Director; there are numerous internal documents, especially concerning finances during Philip Berman's chairmanship; in September 1996 there is A Study of Visitors to the Cezanne Exhibition prepared by the Museum; and in April and May there is a self-study of the Museum as a whole prepared for the American Association of Museums. Supplementing the correspondence and documents are 16 folders of miscellaneous printed items for the years 1981-1998; these help a good deal to supply context for the documentation of the Berman's involvement with the Museum, one of the most sustained and productive enterprises of their lives.

SERIES III.D College Speak-In

In 1967 Muriel Berman initiated a new television series designed to appeal to students of area colleges and to involve them as participants in the programs. Aired during the academic year from fall 1967 through spring 1975 by WLVT-TV Channel 39, the series featured a wide variety of topics including abortion, astrology, acupuncture, exorcism, the draft, drugs, the U.N., student power, and women in the church. Guests were sometimes local experts, but often were international celebrities such as Jane Fonda, Congressman Wilbur D. Mills, film star Gina Lollobrigida, Ambassador T.N. Kaul of India, astronaut William Anders. Muriel Berman was both producer and hostess of the show. The file includes much correspondence and related documents concerning planning and scheduling the programs and some of the handwritten notes made by Muriel Berman in preparation for taping. The preliminary name of the series was "Tell It Like It Is", changed by fall 1967 to "College Speak-In", and later to "Speak-Out" and then "Guest Spot".

SERIES III.E Lehigh County Community College (LCCC)

Lehigh County Community College was founded in Schnecksville, Pennsylvania, on March 30, 1966; Muriel Berman was a member of the original Board of Trustees, which held its first meeting on March 31 of that year. Classes began in the fall of 1967. Active in many aspects of the work of the Board and the College, Muriel Berman was Board Chairman by 1979. The files are in three parts, of which the first reflect general Board and College business, the second concerns the retirement of the College's first president Dr. John G. Berrier in 1983, and the third concerns the Lehigh County Community College Foundation, established by the Board of Trustees in 1975. All parts contain much correspondence, minutes of meetings, news clippings, and other related printed items. The first part has also a few photographs, some early (1967) issues of a student newspaper, and some commencement programs, as well as records of the inauguration of Dr. Berrier.

SERIES III. F Jewish Publication Society (JPS)

Philip I. Berman and Muriel M. Berman were for many years active members of the Jewish Publication Society, founded in 1888 in Philadelphia to provide high quality books of Jewish interest for the English speaking world. By 1976 the Bermans had established the Muriel and Philip Berman Book Editions Endowment Fund, through which college and university libraries received free copies of a variety of JPS publications. In 1977 Muriel Berman accepted election as Treasurer of JPS; from 1981 to 1984 she served as the organization's first woman President.

Both the Personal Files (1973-1999) and the Administrative Files (1974-1989) consist primarily of papers from the years of Muriel Berman's presidency (1981-1984), and contain a great deal of correspondence, together with a wide variety of other documents, such as texts of speeches, minutes of meetings, typescripts of books, printed JPS catalogs, and even a few photographs.

Of publication projects completed during Muriel Berman's tenure as president, the most outstanding was the new English translation of the Hebrew Bible, of which the third and final volume was published in 1982. A one-volume edition of the complete text was issued in 1983. Muriel Berman presented a copy of this one-volume edition to President Reagan in April of 1983, as photographs and other documents attest. Projects represented in the file by typescripts as well as by correspondence are The History of the Jewish Publication Society by Jonathan D. Sarna, and the Bible Commentary, to which several scholars contributed. In connection with these and other projects and events, the JPS files contain letters from e.g. John Cardinal Krol, Chaim Potok, Senator Henry M. Jackson, Vice President George Bush.

SERIES III. G Women's Organizations

Muriel M. Berman was energetically involved in several women's organizations at all levels, from local to international. Most important of all, throughout her life, was Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, whose principal mission was medical relief. The files on Hadassah extend from 1950 to 1999, and include records, for example, of her tenure as President of the Eastern Pennsylvania Region of Hadassah, 1959-1962; the Berman's gift of the Hadassah Nurses' Residence at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem (groundbreaking Feb. 10, 1971); their gift of the National Medical Library Building for the Hebrew University-Hadassah Medical School (cornerstone laid April 3, 1973); the Myrtle Wreath Award presented to them by Hadassah On March 1, 1977; their gift to Hadassah of the portrait of Henrietta Szold, founder of Hadassah, for presentation to the National Portrait Gallery in Washington, D.C. Much related information will be found in Series IV. E, Special Projects in Israel.

Muriel Berman participated also, as a delegate appointed by President Gerald Ford, in the World Conference of the International Women's Year sponsored by the United Nations in Mexico City, June 19 - July 2, 1975, and in related conferences such as the Hemispheric Conference for Women in August 1976, as well as in the work of the Pennsylvania Commission for Women.

Series III. G contains much correspondence and some photographs, besides a great variety of printed ephemera, some of which are relevant to the local history of the Lehigh Valley.

SERIES IV. A Ursinus College

The close and productive relationship which evolved between the Bermans and Ursinus College began in the academic year 1932-1933, when Philip Berman was enrolled as an undergraduate. In 1967, Ursinus awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws; in 1987 the College awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters to Muriel Berman. During the intervening half century, Philip and Muriel Berman were consistently major benefactors of the College, especially through their gifts of art. Beginning in the 1960's they presented many important gifts of books, paintings, prints, and sculptures. The crowning gift came in October of 1989, with the opening of the Philip and Muriel Berman Museum of Art (for which occasion the principal speaker was the Bermans' long time friend and fellow art collector James Michener) and the endowment of the Muriel M. Berman Directorship of the Museum.

Assistance from the Bermans enabled the Museum to host several outstanding exhibitions, as for example AThe City of David: Discoveries from the Excavations@ (1991) and AStone Echoes: Original Prints by Francoise Gilot” (1995). From the College’s large collection of sculptures by Lynn Chadwick, an exhibition toured the world in 1990-1991.

Boxes 155-162 contain the files consisting primarily of correspondence between the Bermans and Ursinus College. Richard P. Richter (President through 1994), John Strassburger (President from 1995), John R. Van Ness (Vice President for College Relations), and Lisa Tremper Barnes (Muriel M. Berman Museum Director) are frequent correspondents. Copies of letters sent by the Bermans are present throughout. Among many letters written by persons not at the College may be mentioned those by Lynn Chadwick, Zigi Ben-Haim, Mary Ann Unger, Doris Richter Sams, Anthony Cardinal Bevilacqua, Francoise Gilot, Nancy Berman Bloch. Artists whose work is discussed or otherwise represented in these files but whose letters do not appear here include: Albert J. Adolphe, Harry Bertoia, Alexander Calder, Celestino Giampaoli, Dennis Gould, Michael Price, Albert Schroder, Ernest Shaw, Tom Sternal, Igaël Tumarkin, Andrew Wyeth, and many others.

In the AChadwicks@ folders (Box 161, Folders 14-17) is some correspondence concerning the casting of Lynn Chadwick’s sculptures by the Morris Singer Foundry, Basingstoke, England. In the ACity of David Dig@ folders (Boxes 161-162) is some correspondence with the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

In addition to the letters themselves, these files contain many related documents, such as: newspaper clippings, printed announcements and invitations, inventories of art work, reports of Museum activity, proposals for exhibitions, photographs of people and art work. Issues of the Ursinus College Bulletin have been filed together in Box 162, followed by miscellaneous printed items not directly connected to the correspondence.

Some further materials relating to Ursinus College may be found in Series I.F (Art Correspondence) Box 85 Folders 4-9, and Series VI.A (Photographic Prints) Binder 7 Section 6.

SERIES IV. B Lehigh University

The enduring partnership between the Bermans and Lehigh University began at least as early as 1960, when Lehigh's Professor of Fine Arts Francis J. Quirk arranged for an exhibition at the University of some 72 works of art from the Bermans' collections. A major gift of Japanese prints followed in 1980, and throughout the eighties several gifts of sculpture. In 1984, as a result of discussion with President Peter Likins, the Bermans established at Lehigh the Jewish Studies Center, renamed in 1989 the Philip and Muriel Berman Center for Jewish Studies. The relatively small file which constitutes Series IV. B provides limited documentation of the Bermans' long involvement with Lehigh, but it is supplemented by the larger files in Series IV. C (Jewish Studies Center) and in Series I.F. (Art Correspondence) Boxes 59-60, as well as by others such as Series III. A (Awards), Box 120 Folder 5, which records the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters awarded to Philip Berman by Lehigh University in 1969.

SERIES IV. C Jewish Studies Center

The Jewish Studies Center, renamed in 1989 the Philip and Muriel Berman Center for Jewish Studies, was established at Lehigh University by the Bermans in 1984. In January 1985 Laurence J. Silberstein was installed as the Center's first Director. At the same time the Bermans promoted the teaching of Jewish Studies on other Lehigh Valley campuses. Series IV. C thus contains correspondence and printed items relating to Lafayette College, Moravian College and Muhlenberg College, as well as to Lehigh University. Correspondents include Laurence J. Silberstein, Lehigh University President Peter Likins, Lafayette College Presidents David W. Ellis and Arthur Rothkopf, Lafayette College Professor Robert Cohn, Jerusalem Mayor Teddy Kollek. Extending from 1983 to 1989, this file also contains some of the ephemeral publications of the center, such as its Newsletter, and information on its Visiting Scholars and conferences.

SERIES IV. D Gregorian University

In 1993 and 1994 the Bermans established contacts with the Gregorian University in Rome. Series IV. D records some of the negotiations, involving also the American Jewish Committee, which led to an exchange of scholars and students between the Gregorian and the Philip and Muriel Berman Center for Jewish Studies at Lehigh University. In 1995 Laurence J. Silberstein, Director of the Center, became the first Visiting Professor from Lehigh to the Gregorian.

SERIES IV. E Special Projects in Israel

A glance at the following list will immediately suggest the broad range of the Bermans' interests in Israel. Earliest of the projects recorded here is the construction of the Muriel and Philip I. Berman National Medical Library, dedicated in October 1975. The files on this project, extending from 1970 to 1998, include correspondence, printed ephemera, and photographs. Like several other projects, the National Medical Library was designed to further the work of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem as well as Hadassah.

The Jerusalem Biblical Zoo, an early project (1976-1980) which the Bermans expected to support, was not in fact realized, but the files contain some detailed plans for it, including technical drawings.

Two programs which the Bermans began to support in the early eighties through the American Friends of the Hebrew University were a series of scholarships and fellowships paid for by the Muriel and Philip Berman Scholarship and Fellowship Endowment Fund (established 1981), and the International Center for Teaching of Jewish Civilization. The Bermans' involvement began in 1982.

In 1982-1983 the Bermans created an exchange program for students and faculty in Nursing at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and the University of Pennsylvania. The files on this program extend from 1982 to 1997.

Of all the special projects, that which generated the largest files was the Philip and Muriel Berman Center for Biblical Archaeology, established in 1990. Correspondence, printed ephemera, and photographs are included in the files, including letters from Trude Dothan, Director of the Center.

SERIES IV. G American Jewish Committee

This small file documents the meeting on February 6, 1995, of American Jewish Committee delegates with Pope John Paul II. Photocopies of the Pope's autograph on a book which he inscribed on that occasion for Muriel Berman are included. Some of the correspondence and printed items also relate to the Gregorian University (see Series IV. D), and to an exchange of students sponsored by the Bermans in 1996-1997 between the Gregorian and California University of Pennsylvania.

SERIES IV. H Art Gifts

So consuming a passion for Philip and Muriel Berman was the collecting and giving of art that every Series in the Berman Collection is in some way related to art. Series IV. H is in this respect one of the most important, as it records many of the Bermans' gifts of art to a great variety of recipients from 1956 to 1995. Arranged in so far as practicable in chronological order, this file contains correspondence between the Bermans and many institutions, especially schools, colleges, universities, and museums. There is information on numerous artists, and there are photographs of many of the art works. There are formal appraisals of some of the gifts, and extensive records of payment. Among the diverse materials to be found here are correspondence and printed ephemera on the Bermans' gifts of outdoor sculpture to the City of Allentown, and the records of gifts to the various State Colleges and Universities in Pennsylvania.

SERIES V. A Travel

A variety of files kept by Muriel M. Berman and Philip I. Berman on their extensive travels has been combined here into a single chronological sequence. Much printed material is included, such as travel brochures, picture postcards, museum guidebooks, theater programs, and newspaper clippings; there are occasional photographs, notably the 1966 photo of Muriel Berman with Imelda Marcos; there are documents such as receipts and itineraries; and there is correspondence with people whom Philip and Muriel Berman met on their travels, as well as a fine series of letters home by Muriel Berman in 1957-1958. The first major trip represented here is the trip through Africa in 1957-1958. The round-the-world trips in 1959 and 1964 are well represented, as are the visits to Ethiopia in 1966 and Iran in 1974. Because of the Bermans' wide ranging interests, these travel files are not simply vacationers' mementoes; they contain, for example, information on art, on religion, and on Jewish affairs. Some of the travel files are therefore closely related to others in the Collection, as for example the papers on travel in Ethiopia (1966) complement the World Jewish Congress file for 1966 (Service IV. G), since in that year Muriel Berman was the WJC representative to the UNICEF Board Meeting in Addis Ababa. Similarly the papers on the Bermans' visit to Tahiti in 1964 are related to the Gauguin material in the Art Correspondence (Series I.D).

SERIES V. B Personal & Family Memorabilia

An extensive file of Marine Corps papers (1942-1947) documents primarily Philip Berman's years of active duty as a Marine Gunner, December 1942 to September 1945. Based in San Diego, California, Philip Berman served more than 15 months overseas, returning November 30, 1944. For photographs of him in this period, see Series VI.

Folders 14-20 in Box 191 contain a file of widely diverse memorabilia which have been arranged in chronological order but otherwise kept as received, with nothing removed or added. These items appear to have been collected into this file by Philip Berman himself, and include a copy of his birth certificate, a copy of his high school graduation program, correspondence (1966) and other papers concerning his serving as a delegate to the UN Economic and Social Council, a copy of a telegram from Hubert Humphrey (May 7, 1968), a photograph of Muriel Berman (1969) with Françoise Gilot and Paloma Picasso, a letter (April 24, 1979) from the Vatican Secretariat of State, and numerous newspaper and magazine articles. Folders 29-31 in Box 191 and Folders 1-4 in Box 192 also contain an undisturbed collection of clippings saved by Philip Berman.

The memorabilia of Muriel Berman also include a file, Folders 10-12 in Box 192, collected by her and kept as received except for arrangement in chronological order. This file includes some photographs, apparently of the 1950's.

For further photographs of Philip Berman, Muriel Berman, and their family members, see Series VI.

The Mallin family file, Folders 13-15 in Box 193, concerns primarily a piece of real estate in Israel inherited jointly by Muriel Berman and her brother from their father Solomon Mallin and subsequently given to The Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

SERIES VI.A Photographic Prints

The photographic prints which were received as part of the Berman Papers but separately from other files have been housed in archival polypropylene storage pages and arranged in 27 loose leaf binders. On the front of each binder is a table of the sections comprising its contents. All of these sections are listed below. Whenever negatives were received with a group of prints, the negatives have been stored in a page immediately preceding the prints and following the section label. Some prints were received in envelopes or other containers labeled by Muriel Berman. Such labeling has been preserved (though not necessarily with the whole envelope or container) and will be found following the section labels. Many prints have identification written on the verso by Muriel Berman, who undertook a major project of annotation in preparation for delivering the prints to Lehigh. Her work of identification will be of great value to future researchers.

In Binders 1-4 are photographs received together as a single file, almost all showing sculptures presented as gifts by the Bermans. Many of these have been identified on the verso by Janet Heffner, who has often indicated both the artist's name and the recipient of the gift. These photographs are grouped into sections by artist, and the sections are arranged in alphabetical order by the artist's last name. Photographs of the artists are sometimes to be found here, as for example of Kenneth Armitage, Lynn Chadwick, Celestino Giampaoli, Menashe Kadishman, Ephraim Peleg, Yehiel Shemi.

Other groups of photographs relating primarily to art are to be found in Binders 5-7 and the first part of Binder 8, e.g. works in Italy, France, and Portugal, and shows of the Bermans' own collection of Eastern European art. Included in Binder 5 are photographs from the 1984 and 1993 visits with the Pope, and from the trip to the Gregorian University in 1995.

The latter part of Binder 8 and all of Binder 9 contain photographs of Philip I. Berman and Muriel M.

Berman and their families. A wide range of places and dates is represented here, beginning with high school and Marine Corps pictures of Philip Berman. Of special interest, in Binder 8, are the photo of Philip Berman beside the portrait sculpture of him by Michael Price; photos of Philip Berman at Hess's; a photo of Nancy Berman with Mildred Miller; a photo of Philip Berman and Nancy Berman with Edward Kennedy; a photo of Nancy Berman with Jacques Lipschitz; a photo of Nina and Steven Berman with Governor Laurence.

Binders 10-12 are primarily records of parties at the Bermans' house, and include photos of a great many individuals, notably Birch Bayh, Jonas Salk, Françoise Gilot, Paloma Picasso, Yogo Sensei, Perle Mesta, and the staff of the Whitney Museum, among others.

Israel is the principal focus of Binders 13-15, which contain a great variety of photographs, recording, for example, Philip Berman's Bar Mitzvah in Jerusalem, his meeting with Anwar Sadat, the inauguration of the Jewish Studies Center at Lehigh University, the Bermans' gifts of art work to Jerusalem and to the Hadassah Hospital, the Bermans' establishment of major institutions such as the Berman National Medical Library and the Berman Center for Biblical Archaeology, both in Jerusalem.

Binder 16 contains photographs reflecting many of the awards received by Philip and Muriel Berman, including honorary degrees from Lehigh University and Ursinus College, Man of the Year award, Golden Plate award, Philanthropist of the Year award, and several others.

Binders 17-19 contain primarily photographs from the Bermans' travels: Japan, Mongolia, Poland, Morocco, for example. Section 1 of Binder 17, however, is a group of photographs received together as a single file, containing photos from Philip Berman's World War II tour of duty in the South Pacific, together with some family photographs.

Binder 20 records some of the Bermans' connections with persons of national and international standing. The names are too numerous to list individually, but include Lord Caradon, King Hussein, Tiki Kaul, John F. Kennedy, Betty Ford, Nelson Rockefeller, George Bush, Bill Clinton, Patrick Moynihan, Stuart Udall, George Romney, Fred Rooney, Paul McHale, George Leader, William Scranton, Françoise Gilot, Tenzing Norgay, Nawang Gomphu.

Binder 21 includes primarily groups of photographs relating to activities in the Allentown, Bethlehem, and Philadelphia areas. Binder 22 contains some miscellaneous, unidentified, and partially identified photographs.

Binders 23-27 are all concerned with Hess's and provide glimpses of many aspects of the store's operation, from staff meetings to flower shows and special guests such as Angie Brooks, Henry Jackson, Hubert Humphrey, Wilbur D. Mills, Barbara Eden, Gina Lollobrigida, Sophia Loren.

In all there are some 4,313 prints in Series VI.A, in black and white and in color, and in a variety of sizes. These, however, may well be less than half the photographs in the Berman Papers. Thousands of other photographs are included, as received, in files of the other Series. There are also, in the other Series, extensive files of documentation directly or indirectly related to the photographs in Series VI.A, as for example Series III.A (Awards) relating to Binder 16 of Series VI.A, or Series I.F (Art Correspondence) relating to Binders 1-7 of Series VI.A. Furthermore, photographs of Philip Berman and Muriel Berman will be found not only in Binders 8 and 9 of Series VI.A but also throughout this Series and throughout the Collection. Photographs larger than 8x10 will be found in Series IX.

The contents of Binders 1-27 may be summarized as follows:

Binders 1-4 Gifts of sculpture, arranged alphabetically by artist
Binder 5 Art in Italy; the Pope
Binder 6 Art in France, Portugal, U.S.A., Canada
Binder 7 Art -- miscellaneous
Binder 8 Art at house; Alaska; Muriel M. Berman and family
Binder 9 Philip I. Berman, Muriel M. Berman, and family
Binders 10-12 Parties at the house
Binders 13-15 Israel and Jewish affairs
Binder 16 Awards
Binders 17-19 Travel
Binder 20 Notable persons, mostly political Binder 21 Miscellaneous identified
Binder 22 Miscellaneous unidentified

SERIES VI.B Slides

Most of the approximately 4,388 slides in the Berman Collection are 2x2 color transparencies made ca. 1955-1984 during the Bermans' travels to all parts of the world. Some 3,603 such slides have been housed in archival polypropylene storage pages and arranged in seven loose leaf binders numbered 28 through 34. In so far as possible, slides developed from one roll of film have been kept together as a set and arranged in the order in which they were made; the many sets of slides from different rolls of film have, in so far as possible, been arranged in chronological order.

To facilitate research on art, the sets of slides which show art work have been removed from the above sequence and placed together in Binder 28, in their own separate chronological order. Within these sets, some slides show art works while others do not; the sets have nevertheless been kept together for the sake of context. The slides in Binders 29-34 therefore show mostly people, buildings, and scenery; one exception is the Jerusalem stable of Alexander Calder in Binder 33.

The approximately 785 slides not housed in Binders 28-34 are stored in Boxes 207-209. Most of these slides are stereoptic slides, of which many were commercially produced (in France, Russia, and the Vatican) and include a variety of art works. The stereoptic slides taken by the Bermans themselves seem to date mostly from the 1950's and reflect their world-wide travels; some slides of art work will be found here.

Because of the large number of slides and the variety of subjects, the following list is necessarily selective in naming the places represented, not comprehensive. It is hoped that the researcher interested primarily in, for example, Spain or Israel will find here the clues she or he needs.

Binder 28 1960-1984 and undated

527 slides, including some sculpture and other artwork photographed in Holland, Brazil, Thailand, the Virgin Islands, France, Japan, Israel, Mexico, and Austria. Slides of Eastern European art and of Israeli art are included. Artists represented include, among many others, Alexander Calder, Menashe Kadishman, and R. Freudenthal.

Binder 29 1957-1972 and undated

391 slides, representing a variety of family trips and parties; construction of the Bermans' house in 1966; and the award of an honorary degree by Cedar Crest College to Muriel Berman in 1972.

Binder 30 1957-1966

595 slides, including scenes from travels in Israel, Japan, Africa, South America, Tahiti, Fiji, East Germany, Greece, Thailand, Australia, Singapore, Ethiopia, Romania, Belgium; there are also pictures from the 1962 Allentown Bicentennial Parade and the 1964 Democratic National Convention.

Binder 31 1966

546 slides, including scenes from travels in Taiwan, the Philippines, Japan, Bulgaria, Israel, Greece, and Ethiopia; there are also pictures from the Manila Conference attended by Lyndon Baines Johnson and Lady Bird Johnson.

Binder 32 1966-1977

472 slides, including scenes from travels in Ethiopia, Japan, Israel, Greece, Iran, Kashmir.

Binder 33 1977-1978 and undated

516 slides, including scenes from travels in Mongolia, China, Israel, Africa, Japan, India, South America, the Vatican, and Portugal; under the date 1977 are included some pictures of the stabile of Alexander Calder in Jerusalem.

Binder 34 undated

556 slides, including scenes from travels in Japan, Pakistan, Russia, Hong Kong, Israel, Alaska, India, and Nepal; included are pictures of Tenzing Norgay and Nawang Gomphu.

SERIES VII Miscellaneous Printed Items

Nearly all of the Series in the Berman Collection have newspaper clippings and other miscellaneous printed items which were included with the files as received. In Series VII have been gathered the many printed items, mostly newspaper and magazine articles, which were not received as part of other files. All have been arranged in chronological order, regardless of subject, with the following exceptions: the obituaries for Philip Berman have been separately placed in Folder 15 of Box 195; items primarily concerning Jewish Affairs beginning in 1973 have been separately placed in Box 195 Folder 16 through Box 196 Folder 5; items primarily concerning Jewish-Christian relations beginning in 1985 have been separately placed in Box 196 Folders 6-10; and items concerned primarily with art beginning in 1980 have been separately placed in Box 196 Folder 11 through Box 198 Folder 16.

SERIES VIII. A Exhibition Catalogs Listing Berman Art Works

The Bermans collected art, gave art away, and also lent works of art for exhibition. Series VIII. A is an extremely valuable file of exhibition catalogs which list works of art lent by the Bermans. Most of the catalogs included here represent exhibitions which in fact consisted entirely of works belonging to the Bermans. Some of the catalogs were compiled by Muriel Berman herself.

Information supplementing most of the catalogs will be found in other Series, especially Series I.F (Art Correspondence).

SERIES VIII. B Catalogs from the Art in the Embassies Program

When Nancy Kefauver established the Art in the Embassies Program for the U.S. Department of State in 1965, Philip and Muriel Berman were among the first to lend their art works, and they continued to participate in the program for many years. Series VIII. B is a collection of catalogs which include notices of art works lent to the embassies by the Bermans.

SERIES VIII.C Various Books

Included with the archival records transferred by Muriel Berman to Lehigh University in 1999-2000 were a variety of published books. These have been kept with the Berman Papers and are listed here in two groups. The first group is art catalogs. The second group consists of books removed from other series and brought together here. For each of these books the subseries from which it was taken is indicated in square brackets. All of the books in this second group have been individually listed in Lehigh University's online catalog.

SERIES IX. A, B, & C Oversize

The items included in Series IX have all been removed from their places in other Series solely because of their size or format. For that reason, each item has been individually listed, with a note indicating the place in the Collection from which it has been removed. Series IX.A (Boxes 201-202) contain items stored in vertical boxes; Series IX.B (Boxes 203-206) contain items stored in flat boxes; Series IX. C contains items large enough to be stored flat in a map case drawer. In general, to assist the researcher, the items within each subseries have been listed in Series order, but there are a few exceptions (e.g. Folder 14 of Box 203 would have been expected to follow Folder 4 of Box 201 and the contents of Box 205 might have been expected to follow Folder 12 of Box 204.) The dates in this series range from 1930 to 1998.
