Treasure Room

In keeping with the customary library terminology at the end of the nineteenth century, the rare books which Lehigh University acquired for its newly-built Linderman Library were put into what was called the Treasure Room.

Those early rare acquisitions, added to the library collections in the 1870s and 1880s, are the subject of this Special Collections Flyer and an exhibition currently on view in the Bayer Galleria of Rare Books. The exhibition is part of the celebration of 125 years of libraries at Lehigh.

The several thousand books selected at the time were on a variety of topics; the ones on display, listed below, are some of the true jewels from that treasure room.

1. William Shakespeare. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories & Tragedies. Published According to the True Originall Copies. London: Printed by I. Iaggard, and E.

Blount, 1623. The famous "first folio."

2. Francis Beaumont and John Fletcher. Comedies and Tragedies. London: Printed for Humphrey Robinson ... and Humphrey Moseley ... , 1647.

3. William Harvey. Anatomical Exercitation, Concerning the Generation of Living Creatures; to Which are Added Particular Discourses, of Births, and of Conceptions, &c. London: Printed by J. Young for O. Pulleyn, 1653.

4. Bartolomé de las Casas. Brevissima Relacion de la Destruycion de las Indias ... Impresa ... en ... Sevilla: En Casa de Sebastian Trugillo ... , 1552.
