Victor A. Johnson Field Camp Scholarship Application

The Vic Johnson Field Camp Scholarship was established in recognition of a legendary cowboy of the Copper Basin who has helped the field camp for many years. Vic passed away in the spring of 2010. We are typically able to make awards for ~$500, but this depends on donors to the scholarship and the number of strong applicants.

There are two criteria necessary to qualify for the scholarship: (1) academic achievement, and (2) field camp performance, both as an excellent student and good camp citizen. Final awards will be determined by the end of camp and presented as cash prizes during the final banquet.
