

Department of Economics

2011 Fall Seminar Schedule

September 9	Yuriy Pylypchuk Social and Scientific Systems	Identifying Net and Detailed Effects of Marriage on the Use of Preventive Care
September 23	Robert Hetzel The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond	The Great Recession: Market Failure or Policy Failure?
September 30	Tetsuya Saito SUNY at Buffalo	Toward a Search-Theoretic Approach of Modern Economic Development, Financial Deepening, and Urbanization: A Cross-Country Perspective
October 14	Stacy Dale Mathematica Policy Research	Estimating the Return to College Selectivity over the Career Using Administrative Earnings Data
October 21	Jennifer Kohn Drew University	The Marriage Myth: New Evidence on the Effect of Relationships on Health
October 28	Susan Averett Lafayette College	TBD
November 4	Dylan Small UPenn, Dept. of Statistics	Strategies for Using Partially Valid Instrumental Variables
November 11	Inas Rashad Kelly Queens College of CUNY	Early Education and Health Outcomes Using ECLS-B
November 18	Kent Messer University of Delaware	Reducing HIV Stigma: Measuring the Effectiveness of Various Interventions
December 2	Dhaval Dave Bentley University	TBD

All seminars will be held at 3:10 in Rauch Business Center, room 151
Refreshments will be available at 2:30 in the Faculty Lounge, room 453

LEHIGH
UNIVERSITY.