Michael A. Schlesinger '80, Corporate Partner, Latham & Watkins LLP

Michael Schlesinger is a Corporate Partner at Latham & Watkins LLP and works in their Washington, D.C. office. He specializes in mergers and acquisitions, private debt and equity finance and business and transactional planning.

His clients are diverse and include established companies and enterprises, as well as early stage technology and life science ventures. Mr. Schlesinger advises this clientele on their day-to-day and long-term business issues and transactions, including equity and debt financing, acquisitions and sales of assets and lines of business, licensing of intellectual property, joint ventures and collaborations, employment agreements and incentive plans for key personnel, and exit strategies for ownership. He also advises boards of directors and management on their duties and obligations to shareholders and other stakeholders.
