

Name: _____

Exploring Life Participant Survey

1. How many networked computers are in your classroom? _____

2. Where do your students use the Internet for their biology course assignments? Check all that apply.
 Biology classroom/lab
 School computer lab
 School media lab
 Home access
 Other: _____

3. Where do use a computer? Check all that apply.
 Home
 Classroom
 Teacher Lounge
 School library/media center
 Other: _____

4. What guides your curriculum during the school year?
Please rank in order:
 Teacher generated activities
 Textbook
 State core curriculum
 Other

5. Have you ever been on a textbook selection committee?
 Yes
 No

6. Do you have a computer support person to assist you in implementing instructional technologies into your classroom curriculum?

- Yes, within the school
- Yes, within the district
- No
- Don't know

7. Rate the media where you receive most of your professional training and support.

- Professional teaching organizations
- Professional science organizations
- Educational research journals
- Teacher magazines
- Museums, zoos, nature centers, etc.
- School or district
- University
- Don't participate in any
- All on my own
- Other please list: _____

8. What textbook do you currently use in your biology curriculum course for your "average" students?

9. What Web-based activities do you include in your biology class curriculum for "average students"?

10. List your five favorite science education Web sites?

11. Please define the term "science as a process."

12. What is constructivist learning?

13. Give 2 or 3 examples of active learning?

14. Give an example of "a science teacher as facilitator."

15. What do you think your classroom will be like in Fall 2002? Please include technologies your students will be using.

