

2012 SUMMER SERVE ABROAD

Caribbean

MAY 10 - MAY 19, 2012

International Community Service comes alive: a 10-day service trip to the beautiful islands of Antigua & Barbuda.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This international community service program is for students who seek a unique opportunity to volunteer abroad.

Service projects will likely include: painting underprivileged schools, assisting teachers in a school for disabled children and working on a Rotary community project. Excursions on the Island will likely include: Visiting Parliament, discussions with local media, and attending sporting and cultural events.

Limited space available. Applications will be available online shortly!

FAST FACTS

• DESTINATION

Antigua & Barbuda (middle of the Leeward Islands in E. Caribbean)

• APPLICATION DEADLINE

February 17, 2012

• ESTIMATED COST

$1,980 (including flight, airport transfers, housing, local transportation, and some meals.)

*This is a not for credit program.

A collaboration of the Community Service Office, Africana Studies and the Global Union.