This handbook is intended to help you better understand your financial aid notification (FAN), as well as to inform you of important requirements, policies and procedures. Be sure to review your FAN for accuracy (name, address, housing and enrollment status). If you are viewing your award on the portal, we suggest that you print your notification for your records.

NOTE: Important messages may appear on the back side of your paper award notification and in active messages through the portal.

In order to finalize your financial aid package, you must comply with any additional paperwork. Students may check any requests for additional paperwork by logging into their portal. Please note that it is the student’s responsibility to make sure that all paperwork has been received and that there are no outstanding requirements.

Mission of the Office of Financial Aid
The mission of the Office of Financial Aid is to reduce the financial barriers to a Lehigh education for those families whose resources alone would be insufficient to meet the cost of attendance. Our aid program is designed to measure the difference between our costs and the amount of money your family can be expected to contribute toward those costs.

Determining Financial Aid Eligibility
The Office of Financial Aid awards aid that is based on need. We determine institutional financial need by taking into account both the federal methodology (FAFSA) as well as our own institutional calculations (CSS/PROFILE). A family’s institutional need is determined by subtracting the calculated expected family contribution (EFC) from the university’s cost of attendance for the current academic year. If all of the required paperwork is submitted and complete by the given deadlines, a student’s institutional financial need may be met with a combination of self-help (federal and institutional loans) and gift aid (grants and scholarships), based on fund availability. The majority is renewable on the basis of both continuing need and satisfactory academic progress criteria (page 8).

Financial aid packages are made for one academic year and are divided and disbursed equally between fall and spring semesters. Please refer to the chart on the pages that follow for additional information regarding specific types of financial aid that may be listed on your award notification.

Institutional Loans: If you have an Institutional Loan in your financial aid package, you will be required to complete additional forms that the Office of Financial Aid will provide to you at a later date.

Disbursement of Funds
Prior to disbursement or processing of your institutional aid, you and/or your parents must comply with any requests for additional documentation, such as federal verification requirements or sibling enrollment verifications. If you are selected for federal verification you may be required to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool.*

If all documentation has been received, your aid will be disbursed and appear as a credit or memo item on your bill. Federal regulations state that federal funds may not be disbursed more than 10 days prior to the start of the semester.

Costs of Attendance for the 2017-18 academic year include the following:

* If you are unable to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool you may provide our office with a copy of an official 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript (this is not a request for a copy of an IRS W-2, W-4A or W-4EZ that you filed with the IRS for both yourself and your parents). You will be notified by our office if you have been selected for verification by the government and have not completed one of the steps. Failure to comply will result in the prevention of disbursement of all federal funds to your student account and could potentially put you at risk of being charged a late payment fee due to the resulting unpaid balance.

First-time borrowers of a Federal Direct Loan (subsidized or unsubsidized as noted on your notification letter) must complete Entrance Counseling and complete a Master Promissory Note prior to disbursement. The MPN acts as the loan application and is valid for 10 years from the date of completion. The MPN and Entrance Counseling can be completed at studentloans.gov.

You will need your government-issued Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID to complete this process. If you do not know your FSA ID, please visit fsaid.ed.gov.

You need to complete only one Direct Loan MPN regardless of the type and amount of loan that you borrow. Additional information will be e-mailed to students with instructions on how to complete Entrance Counseling and Master Promissory Notes.

Aid Adjustments and Cancellations

Any aid listed on your Financial Aid Notification is subject to change. Changes may occur due to eligibility changes (due to receipt of updated information), receipt of an additional outside scholarship, change in enrollment or housing status, verification of sibling enrollment or other causes. You will receive notification via e-mail if a change has occurred in your financial aid package. The changes can be viewed on the student portal. Please note that an updated award notification supersedes all previous letters. Compare the updated award with the previous one to determine what portion of your aid package changed. If the loan amounts have changed, you must accept or decline any new portions. NOTE: Important messages may appear in active messages through the portal or on the back of your Financial Aid Notification.

Spring semester billing notification occurs mid-December, with a due date of early January. For information regarding Institutional Payment Plans, please visit the Office of the Bursar’s webpage at financeadmin.lehigh.edu/bursar

Financial Aid Policies

Withdrawal/Refund Policy: An undergraduate student in good standing who formally withdraws or reduces his or her course enrollment below twelve credit hours before 60% of the semester has been completed during the fall and spring semesters will be eligible for a tuition refund. The tuition refund for a student who withdraws or drops a course(s) is calculated on a daily basis. The date used to calculate refunds is based on the date that a properly authorized withdrawal or drop/add is received by the Registrar’s Office. Students receiving financial aid who drop below full-time status must have their financial aid package reevaluated by the Office of Financial Aid prior to the issuance of any refund check. The Office of Financial Aid is responsible for determining the appropriate redistribution of charges and refunds when students receive any financial assistance. These decisions are made on the basis of federal, state and institutional policies. Any refunds due to the Title IV programs will be refunded in the following order: Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan; Subsidized Federal Direct Loan; Federal Perkins Loan; Federal PLUS Loan; Federal Pell Grant; Federal SEOG; any other Title IV program. The policy can be found in its entirety on our website at lehigh.edu/financialaid.

Outside Scholarship/Resource Policy

Students are required to notify the Office of Financial Aid directly and immediately upon receipt of any private scholarship or other outside resources. These resources may result in an adjustment to federal or Institutional (Lehigh) financial aid eligibility. The majority of our financial aid packages are based on financial need and, therefore, require us to monitor aid from all sources.

Receipt of an outside scholarship will first reduce any unmet need (both federally and institutionally), then reduce self-help awards (work-study and student loans used to meet a student’s need). Outside scholarship amounts in excess of unmet need and self-help awards will result in a dollar-for-dollar reduction to Lehigh University Grant.

Tuition benefits are not applied to unmet need. They will first reduce self-help awards (work-study and student loans used to meet a student’s need). Tuition benefits in excess of self-help awards will result in a dollar-for-dollar reduction to Lehigh University Grant.

Finally, the total of all sources of funding cannot exceed a student’s total Cost of Attendance for the year. If receipt of an outside resource causes this “over award,” federal and/or institutional funds must be reduced.

Renewal Policy: It is necessary to reapply for financial aid each year of study. Returning students must reapply for financial aid each year of study. Returning students Renewal Policy: must be reduced.

This “over award,” federal and/or institutional funds the year. If receipt of an outside resource causes reduction to Lehigh University Grant.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy:

All students receiving financial aid must maintain satisfactory academic progress. Satisfactory academic progress for federal financial aid eligibility differs from the academic progress policy for institutional aid. To maintain eligibility for federal aid, students are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress based on both qualitative (cumulative GPA) and quantitative standards (pace of progression). Students must achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of a 1.70 after their freshman year (earning between 0 and 22 credits) and a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 for all other grade levels (23 credits and above). Per federal guidelines, students have a maximum of 12 semesters of federal Aid to complete their graduation requirements (aggregate loan limits apply as well). Students must successfully complete a minimum of 67% of their attempted coursework.

In order to maintain eligibility for institutional financial aid, students must 1) earn 12 new credits each semester, 2) earn a minimum grade point average of 2.0 for each semester, and 3) maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Eligibility for institutional aid at Lehigh University is limited to eight consecutive semesters (unless you are enrolled in a bona fide five-year program such as IBE or Arts & Engineering).NOTE: Institutional aid is provided to assist students in obtaining a bachelor’s degree. Additional aid will not be available to students who choose to enhance their bachelor’s degree with additional credentials (e.g., second major/minors) and are unable to do so during the eight consecutive semesters.

For both federal and institutional aid purposes, academic progress will be checked annually, at the end of each academic year, unless a student is on Financial Aid Probation, in which case SAP will be checked at the end of each semester.

Appeal/Petition Process: Students not maintaining satisfactory progress, either federally or institutionally, may be ineligible for financial aid. Appeals, based on extenuating circumstances, may be submitted to the Committee on Undergraduate Financial Aid. Petition forms and instructions are available on the Office of Financial Aid website at lehigh.edu/financialaid.

FAQS

Q. I believe my family’s financial circumstances constitute need but did not get aid. If I don’t get aid from Lehigh, is there an appeals process?

We strongly encourage you to contact the Office of Financial Aid if you feel there are extenuating circumstances and/or new information that was not available at the time you first applied for aid (e.g., changes in or loss of employment, separation or divorce, or other unexpected events). If your financial aid counselor determines that the information you provide may warrant additional need, they may request additional forms and documentation. You will be notified if there has been an increase to your need-based aid package. Additional awards depend on availability of funds and academic standing. Please note that a review of special circumstances will include reconsideration of the entire financial aid application and possibly a request for additional information. In some cases, aid eligibility may decrease.

Q. Where can I find outside scholarships?

There are many private scholarships you may apply for that may or may not be need-based, which are based on various factors, such as academics, career goals, etc. To look for a scholarship that matches your interests and qualifications, you can access free scholarship information online at collegeboard.com, fastweb.com or gocollege.com.

In most instances there is no charge to apply for scholarships and no guarantee provided that you will receive a scholarship. We strongly recommend you avoid scholarships that require payment to apply. Be sure to carefully research the organization and be wary of scholarship scams. Be aware of our outside scholarship policy (page 8).

Will my financial aid affect my taxes?

Some of the grants and scholarships that you receive may be subject to federal income tax. Usually gift aid (grants and scholarships) that exceeds tuition, fees and actual book expenses is taxable. Consult IRS publications or your tax advisor for specific information. You should maintain a file that contains all financial aid correspondence, including bills from the Bursar and Bookstore, and promissory notes for loans you accept. Keeping accurate files will save you time later.
Q. Why does Lehigh use my noncustodial parent’s financial information when determining ability to pay? What if I do not have any contact with my noncustodial parent or he or she is not willing to pay?
Philosophically, we believe both parents/guardians have a responsibility to pay for college to the extent they are able. Practically speaking, there is simply not enough money available to replace parental contributions. Our challenge is to measure a parent’s/guardian’s ability to pay, not necessarily his or her willingness. Contact our office if there are extenuating circumstances.

Q. How does living off campus affect my financial aid award?
Your financial aid application is reviewed and processed and your aid is disbursed in exactly the same manner regardless of whether you choose on- or off-campus housing. We will use a housing and food allowance when determining your financial need; however, you would not be billed for housing.

Because of this, you may be eligible to receive a refund check to help pay for your off-campus housing. Please note that you will receive a refund check only if your financial aid package exceeds your billable costs for tuition, fees and/or a meal plan.

Q. Can work-study earnings be applied to my bill?
Work-study earnings are paid directly to the student based on the number of hours worked. These funds are used to assist with your unbilled expenses. A deduction for your work-study award may not be taken off the bill you receive from the Bursar’s office.

Q. How can I be considered independent?
For both federal and institutional financial aid purposes, you are required to provide parental information if you are a dependent student. Visit fafsa.ed.gov to determine the dependency status for federal applications. Students may be considered independent only in extreme cases. Being independent for federal purposes does not automatically make you independent for institutional purposes. Please note that being claimed on your parent’s tax return does not affect your dependency status.

Q. What happens to my financial aid if I become a Gryphon?
The self-help portion of your financial aid package (loan and work study) would be replaced by the amount of your Gryphon compensation. If your financial aid package does not include a self-help award, or it does but in an amount less than the Gryphon compensation, a reduction would be made to your Lehigh Grant.

How does studying abroad affect my financial aid?
If you are participating in a university-approved study abroad program, your financial aid would remain the same as if you were still on campus.
