

THE GENERAL COLLEGE DIVISION AT LEHIGH UNIVERSITY:

Students in the General College Division are not candidates for Lehigh degrees. They are admitted to courses at or below the 300 level for which they have met the prerequisites noted in the catalog and/or for which they have received the approval of the departments offering the courses. Credits earned in courses taken in the General College Division may not be submitted to meet the requirements for a graduate degree. You may not audit a course without permission from the Committee on the Standing of Students. 400 level courses may not be taken through the General College Division.

Because the General College Division does not lead to a Lehigh degree, students enrolled in the program are not eligible for Financial Aid.
