2015 Summer Research Participation Program

The following events are open to all incoming graduate students, post-docs, and faculty as well as to undergraduate research participants. After each Friday seminar (about 2:30 p.m.), refreshments will be served in the Physics Coffee Room, LL 317.

May 26  Pizza  6:30 p.m.  Pizza and other refreshments will be provided for incoming REU students at KΔ house today.
Tuesday  KΔ house

May 27  Computer  10:00 a.m.  How to set up a computer account
Wednesday  Orientation  RB 50  (RB is Rauch Business Center)
           Safety  2:00 p.m.  You may also start NSF RCR training.

May 28  NSF RCR  8 a.m.–noon  REU students and new graduate students who work on experimental projects should attend.
Thursday  Training  RB 50  This self-paced, online course on Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) is required by NSF.

May 29  NSF RCR  8 a.m.–noon  Additional time if required.
Friday  Training  RB 50

     Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Vibrating Atoms in Solids Reveal Defect Structures and Reactions
May 30  Picnic  2:00 p.m.  Picnic, South Mountain Park (Upper Pavilion), 1600 E. University Ave., Bethlehem
Sunday

June 5  Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Cryogenic Spectroscopy of Ions in Solidified Ar Matrices
Friday  Prof. Moore  LL 316

June 12 Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Multi-Photon Interactions in Fundamental Research and Technology
Friday  Prof. Biaggio  LL 316

June 19 Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Cell-Material Interactions
Friday  Prof. Jedlicka  LL 316

June 26 Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Elastoplastic Limit States in the Mechanics of Materials and Structures
Friday  Prof. Vermaak  LL 316

July 10 Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  A New Era of Discovery: From Small Dark Shadows to Pale Blue Dots
Friday  Prof. Pepper  LL 316

July 17 Seminar by  1:30 p.m.  Spectroscopy for Sustainable Ethanol Catalysis
Friday  Prof. Baltrusaitis  LL 316

July 23 Student Talks  1:30 p.m.  Program to be arranged:
Thursday  LL 316  Talks will be presented by REU students

July 24 Student Talks  9:00 a.m.  Program to be arranged:
Friday  LL 316  Talks will be presented by REU students

May 20, 2015