THE HAIKU CALENDAR COMPETITION 2013

ADJUDICATOR'S REPORT

Many thanks to everyone who entered this 15th annual contest, and to those who helped to publicize what is an internationally established annual haiku 'event'.

This year 840 entries were received from 124 entrants residing in 12 countries across 3 continents: USA (66 entrants), England (29), Australia (7), Canada (5), Wales (5), New Zealand (4), Ireland (3), Austria (1), Luxembourg (1), N. Ireland (1), Scotland (1) and Slovenia (1).

As ever, in the initial stage of adjudication each poem entered faced one simple criterion: its quality as a haiku. The shortlisted haiku were then judged according to their originality and relevance to their assigned months, particularly with regards to seasonal references.

With 52 haiku by 39 authors, the resulting 2014 calendar continues a rich tradition exploring and celebrating the continuing relevance of seasonal references in English-language haiku. The existence of the calendar, which is only made possible by participation in this contest, also allows us to appreciate individual haiku such as these:

frost-sparkled paddock
he digs the grave
a little deeper

Carolyn Hall (USA)

to the beehive . . .
my son lags behind
in his space suit

Richard Tindall (England)

mistral—
sanding the shutters
to last year's blue

Sara Winteridge (England)

autumn equinox
the lead goose drops
to the back of the v

Julie Warther (USA)

Many thanks again to all entrants for making both this contest and the calendar a worthwhile, and ongoing, experience. I would like to congratulate all the winning poets, and I hope that their haiku will be widely appreciated throughout the coming year.
