

Student Loan Worksheet

Depending on the type of student loans you have, you may need to check various sources to get the following information about your loans. Use this worksheet as a guide for understanding your current student loan debt and what your payments will look like in the future.

☐ Sources to check:

- Your records and your parent's/guardian's records, with their permission
- National Student Loan Database (<https://nslds.ed.gov>)
- Your credit report (www.AnnualCreditReport.com)
- Your financial aid contact on campus

- ☐ As you check these sources, compile the following information to get a snapshot of your current student loan debt and what repayment may look like for you. To calculate estimated payments for federal loans, visit this site from the federal government:

<https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/repaymentEstimator.action>

Lender/Service Name	Loan Type	Current Amount	Interest Rate	Repayment Start Date	Estimated Monthly Payment
					TOTAL: