

Global Lehigh

Lehigh University, home to 1,100+ international students from 98 countries, values the diverse perspectives and experiences that the world brings to its campus. An active on-campus international community and a wide range of international pre- and post-graduate opportunities prepare students to be skilled and competitive members of an ever-increasingly connected world. Our community is engaged, diverse and eager to learn from one another—and you are welcome here.

Global Union

The largest student organization on campus, the GU is a coalition of more than 50 student organizations that promote global awareness and cultural understanding within the Lehigh community and the Lehigh Valley.

United Nations Partnership

Lehigh's Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) status means you'll have the opportunity to attend UN conferences and private briefings, intern with UN NGO offices worldwide, serve as a youth delegate and host ambassadors and UN delegates on campus.

Iacocca International Internship Program

The Iacocca International Internship Program provides fully funded work and research opportunities overseas in the summer in more than 30 countries.
