

OVERVIEW

Our College Town

Bethlehem has an ideal mix of both urban and rural landscapes, and of the past and present. It's a city with a historic, small-town friendliness and feel. The Lehigh River divides Bethlehem into two downtowns—North Bethlehem and South Bethlehem. The Northside is home to historic Main Street and “Restaurant Row,” and the eclectic SouthSide consists of shops and restaurants, and is home to Lehigh University.

SouthSide Arts District

The arts are alive and flourishing in Bethlehem. With the Wind Creek Event Center and the Banana Factory Arts and Education Center located just steps from Lehigh's campus, students have access to concerts, comedians, art galleries, studios and the Olympus Digital Imaging Center. Each month, South Bethlehem comes alive with First Friday, featuring live music, food samples and special deals through town.

20+ festivals per year including Musikfest, SouthSide Film Festival and Oktoberfest

15+ types of cuisine within walking distance of campus

Make the Most of Your Visit

Your time in Bethlehem doesn't have to end after the information session and campus tour—make sure to explore campus on your own and spend some time in Lehigh's home, Bethlehem's SouthSide Arts District.

Top 10 Things to Experience

ON CAMPUS

1. Spend Time in Linderman Library

Take in the beauty of Linderman Library's rotunda and reading room, and you'll realize why it was named to Architectural Digest's list of the 12 most stunning university libraries in the world.

2. Explore the Evolving Campus

Take note of our newer facilities (the Maida, Hitch & Singleton Houses; the Health, Science & Technology Building; and the Business Innovation Building) plus renovations to historic campus structures like Williams Hall and those currently happening to the Clayton University Center.

3. Spot Campus Art

Our campus's natural beauty is enhanced by unique statues, sculptures and other pieces of art to help inspire our students. Take some time before or after your official visit to experience it for yourself.

4. Check Out the View from Lookout Point

Lower Sayre Park Rd & Mountain Dr
Stop by Lookout Point on your way to Mountaintop and Goodman Campuses for a panoramic view of the Lehigh Valley.

5. Visit Mountaintop & Goodman Campuses

Explore our adjoining campuses for a look at the Mountaintop Summer Experience's home in Building C and Iacocca Hall's Tower Room on Mountaintop Campus, as well as Goodman Stadium, Stabler Arena and other Lehigh Athletics facilities on Goodman Campus.

IN BETHLEHEM

6. Eat at a Bethlehem “Institution”

Ask any Lehigh student and they'll easily rattle off their favorite eateries near campus: The Goose, The Cup, Johnny's Bagels, Deja Brew, Bethlehem BrewWorks and the Apollo Grill, to name a few.

7. Find the Murals

The SouthSide Arts District is home to many murals, including the one at Third and New Streets that was created by Denton Borough '11 and pays homage to Bethlehem's steel-making history.

8. Peruse the Shops

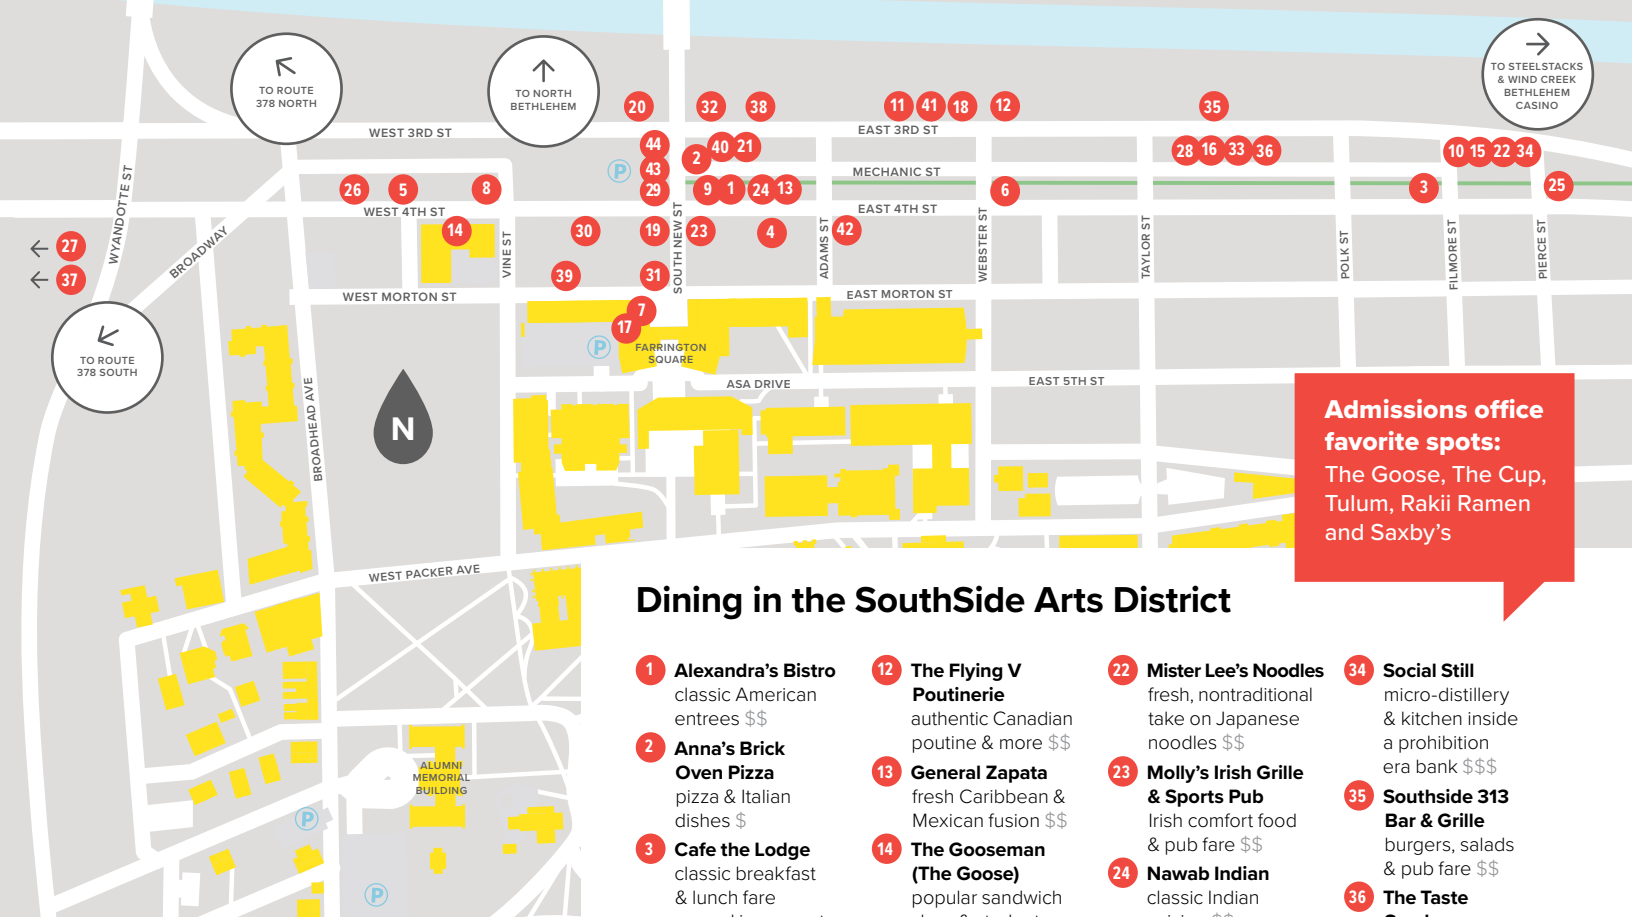

Bethlehem is home to a wide variety of retail. Check out the unique offerings at Apotheca, Laura Bly Designs, Seasons Olive Oil & Vinegar and Donegal Square, and familiar brands at the Wind Creek Outlets—including Michael Kors and Tommy Hilfiger.

9. Catch a Show

From the classical music of the Bach Choir to comedians like John Mulaney, you'll find a wide variety of entertainment within walking distance of campus at Godfrey Daniels, Wind Creek Events Center, SteelStacks, Touchstone Theater and Zoellner Arts Center.

10. Immerse Yourself in History

101 Founders Way and 602 E 2nd St
Take a walk along the Hoover-Mason Trestle at the former Bethlehem Steel site to get up close to the blast furnaces, and learn even more at the National Museum of Industrial History.

Dining in the SouthSide Arts District

3rd

largest metropolitan area in Pennsylvania, after Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, with more than 800,000 residents

The Lehigh Valley

Bethlehem, Allentown, Easton and neighboring boroughs make up the Lehigh Valley. Here, you'll find a myriad of activities—watch the LV IronPigs (the Philadelphia Phillies' AAA team) at Coca-Cola Park or the LV Phantoms (AHL Affiliate of the Philadelphia Flyers) at the PPL Center, which also hosts concerts with artists like Logic and Elton John. Other performing arts venues include SteelStacks, State Theater, and Symphony Hall, and music lovers won't want to miss the Martin Guitar factory tour. For those looking for family excursions, or for the children at heart, the Crayola Experience and Dorney Park are both fun-filled activities within driving distance of campus.
